Celebrating Langeberg's youth through arts

Langeberg Municipality, together with local service providers Dancescape SA, RAD Foundation, Zolani Youth Choir, McGregor Arts Community, Mothertongue, and Next Step Dance Company, celebrated youth arts at the third annual Langeberg Kultuurkis showcase, held on 15 June at the Robertson Town Hall.

The event was attended by more than 150 members of the public, who relished to the full in the talents of the 207 performers.

The showcase formed part of the Youth Day celebrations, and its theme for this year was very aptly themed "25 Years of Democracy: A celebration of youth activism".

In South Africa, Youth day is celebrated every year on 16 June, commemorating as it does the 1976 Soweto Uprising and paying tribute to the learners of the past who stood up to the apartheid government for its unjust laws and policies.

Young people tackled hard hitting topics such as

The Langeberg Kultuurkis, which formed part of the Youth Day celebrations, gave some performers the opportunity to perform on a stage for the first time.

bullying, substance abuse and domestic violence, but also shared messages of hope and faith through their performances. For some, this showcase gave them the opportunity to perform on a stage for the first time.

The purpose of the Langeberg Kultuurkis is to promote the development of performing arts, whether they be choral groups, ballet, drama and poetry within the Langeberg area. Each year the event is rotated among the five towns of the Langeberg Municipal District.

Auditions for the showcase were held in April and May in Ashton, Bonnievale, McGregor, Montagu and Robertson.

Afterwards the participants were trained by various service providers. This subsequently resulted in the "kultuurkis" showcase of talents.

After the showcase, the development and mentoring of these youths are expected to continue.

"Arts and culture teach our young people discipline, build character and refine manners," said Langeberg's Local Economic Development Principal Clerk, Octavia Richards-Liemens.

"It is of vital importance that we invest in and develop the talents of the youth."

Langeberg se jeug deur kunste gevier

Die Langeberg-munisipaliteit, tesame met die plaaslike diensverskaffers Dancescape SA, RAD Foundation, die Zolani Jeugkoor, die McGregor Arts Community, Mothertongue en Next Step Dance Company, het jeugkuns by die derde jaarlikse Langeberg-Kultuurkis-vertoning, wat Saterdag 15 Junie 2019 in die Robertson-stadsaal gehou is, gevier.

Die geleentheid is deur meer as 150 lede van die publiek, wat die talent van die 207 kunstenaars ten volle geniet het, bygewoon.

Die vertoning was deel van die Jeugdagvieringe en die tema vir hierdie jaar het saamgeval met die herdenking van 25 jaar van vryheid en demokrasie, gepas met die tema “25 jaar van demokrasie: ’n Viering van jeugaktivisme”. Jeugdag word elke jaar in Suid-Afrika op 16 Junie gevier en gedenk die Soweto-opstand in 1976, om hulde te bring aan leerders wat teen die Apartheidsregering opgetree het.

Die kunstenaars het moeilike onderwerpe soos boelies, dwelmmisbruik en huishoudelike geweld aangepak, maar ook boodskappe van hoop en geloof deur hul optredes gedeel. Die vertoning het sommige kunstenaars die geleentheid gebied om die eerste keer op ’n verhoog op te tree.

Die doel van Langeberg Kultuurkis is om die ontwikkeling van uitvoerende kunste, koorgroepe, ballet, drama en poësie in die Langeberg-omgewing te bevorder. Die Kultuurkis word elke jaar tussen die vyf dorpe in die Langeberg-munisipale gebied geroteer.

Oudisies is in April en Mei 2019 in Ashton, Bonnievale, McGregor, Montagu en Robertson gehou. Daarna is die deelnemers deur die verskillende diensverskaffers opgelei. Dit het gevolglik tot die Kultuurkis-vertoning gelei. Die ontwikkeling en mentorskap van hierdie jeugdiges gaan ná die vertoning voort.

Na maande se oefen was die altesaam 207 kunstenaars opgewonde om hul talente ten toon te stel.

“Kuns en kultuur leer ons jongmense dissipline, karakterbou en verfyning van maniere. Dit is van kardinale belang dat ons in die talente van die jeug belê en ontwikkel,” het Octavia Richards-

Liemens, Langeberg se klerk vir plaaslike ekonomiese ontwikkeling, gesê.

MADIBA MAGIC

This year's Mandela Day (18 July 2019) was symbolic as it coincided with South Africa's 25 Years of Democracy. Mandela Day calls on us all to make the world a better place and through our daily actions, we must emulate Madiba's ambitions for a society characterised by justice, dignity and human rights.

The staff of Langeberg Municipality spent their 67 minutes of giving back through various projects which included a community clean-up, giving food to the needy, a high tea for the elderly and donating blankets to those in need.
