How to lodge disputes on social grant cases

Social grant agency SASSA has noted the various cases reported by social grant recipients, and has thus embarked on a campaign to resolve all disputes to prevent distress in households. It cares about the well-being of its clients, whom it prioritises.

It is noteworthy that in the past there were numerous complaints about deductions that were made from the clients' social grants by some service providers.

Between 2016 and 2018, 145 260 disputes were logged, 69% of which resulted in refunds to the tune of R7 572 344.30. However, 31% of these disputes did not qualify for refunds. The deadline for processing disputes lodged on the old Cash Paymaster Services-managed SASSA cards has come and gone.

The new SASSA card, although not permitting any deductions, has also been susceptible to some fraudulent activity, which has seriously inconvenienced our clients.

Any person who receives a grant and does not receive what he/she is entitled to, or is unable to access the grant for a specific month should immediately report it to the nearest SASSA office.

If the grant is usually paid into a commercial bank account, the client should bring a copy of his/her most current bank statement along to confirm that no money was received, but also for SASSA to ensure the correct details for the bank account have been captured.

SASSA is requesting support from community-based organisations to assist in getting the message out to all grant recipients.

A client who receives his/her grant in a SASSA card account, should bring the SASSA card in his/her possession to the nearest SASSA office or post office, whichever is the most convenient. The staff will assist with the completion of an affidavit, and refer the client to SAPS to open a criminal case where relevant. This is necessary to ensure that money fraudulently taken is investigated, even while arrangements are made to reimburse the defrauded client.

SASSA has also recently introduced a process to verify the client's details against those of the account holder. It is important for every grant recipient to know that SASSA can pay the grant into the account of the grant recipient only – and not into a joint account, or that of a spouse or offspring.

SASSA may also, with the consent of the grant recipient, deposit the money into the account of the institution where the recipient resides

(for example, into the account of an old-age home).

Where the details of the account do not match (that is where the ID number of the grant recipient and the account holder are not the same, with the exception of grants paid to institutions) no grant will be extracted for payment.

In these cases, the client must go to the nearest SASSA office with a copy of his/her bank statement, to ensure the information is captured correctly. Once the information is re-checked and verified then a double payment will be extracted for the following month.

All new applications go through exactly the same process, with the bank verification being done daily. All new applicants are informed the grant approval is subject to positive bank verification.

Where the information does not match, no payment will be extracted until the record has been updated and corrected.

It is understood these measures may cause inconvenience to social grant recipients, but it is necessary to ensure all grants are paid into the right accounts, and that grant money is not siphoned off into an account of an unknown person.

SASSA is requesting support from all community-based organisations to assist in getting the message out to all grant recipients.

For more information, contact the SASSA customer Care centre on 0800 60 10 11.

Hoe om 'n klag te lê rakende 'n maatskaplike toelae

Die Suid-Afrikaanse agentskap vir maatskaplike sekerheid (Sassa) het die klagtes van inwoners wat Sassa-toelae ontvang, ernstig opgeneem.

Dié klagtes het daartoe gelei dat 'n veldtog van stapel gestuur is om die geskille op te los om sodoende bekommernisse in huishoudings te voorkom. Sassa gee om oor die welstand van sy kliënte.

In die verlede het menige ontvanger gekla oor die aftrekkings op Sassa-toelae. Die meeste van die geld is deur diensverskaffers afgetrek. Tussen 2016 en 2018 is daar 134 260 klagtes oor dié aftrekkings aangeteken en 69% van dié klagtes is terugbetaal, wat 'n totaal van R7 572 344,30 is. Nietemin het 31% van hierdie klagtes nie gekwalifieer vir terugbetelings nie aangesien die spertyd om klagtes op die ou CPS-beheerde Sassa-kaarte aan te meld, verstrekk het.

Die nuwe Sassa-kaart, al laat dit nie enige aftrekkings toe nie, is ook ontvanklik vir bedrog en het al baie ongerief veroorsaak. Enige begunstigde wat Sassa-toelae ontvang, en nie kry waarop hy of sy geregtig is nie, of nie geld kry nie, moet dit dadelik by die naaste Sassa-kantoor gaan aanmeld. As Sassa-toelae by handelsbanke inbetaal word, moet die ontvanger 'n afskrif van sy/haar nuutste bankstaat as bewys inhändig dat daar ongewenste aftrekkings gemaak is of geen toelae ontvang word nie. Dié afskrif van die bankstaat help ook vir Sassa om te verseker dat hulle die regte bankbesonderhede van die kliënt het.

As die ontvanger enige ongerymdhede opmerk moet die volgende stappe gevolg word:

Wanneer 'n ontvanger sy Sassa-toelae in sy Sassa-rekening ontvang moet die klaer na die Suid-Afrikaanse Poskantoor of Sassa-kantoor (met sy kaart) gaan om 'n klag te lê. Die personeel sal hom/haar help om 'n beëdigde verklaring af te lê en ook, waar nodig, die klaer na die polisie verwys om 'n saak aanhangig te maak.

Hierdie stappe is nodig om te verseker dat die geld wat deur bedrog van die rekening vereffen is te ondersoek – al is daar reëlings getref om die geld aan die slagoffer terug te betaal.

Sassa het ook onlangs 'n proses aangekondig om die kliënt se besonderhede met dié van die rekeninghouer te bevestig. Dit is vir elke ontvanger van 'n Sassa-toelaag belangrik dat die toelaag net in die rekening van die ontvanger betaal word – nie in 'n gesamentlike rekening of 'n rekening van 'n eggenoot of dié van 'n kind nie. Sassa mag wel, met die toestemming van die ontvanger, die geld in die rekening plaas waar die ontvanger gehuisves word, bv. in die rekening van 'n aftreeoord.

Wanneer die besonderhede van die rekening nie ooreenstem met die ontvanger nie (bv. wanneer die ID-nommers verskil) sal geen aftrekking vir betaling gehef word nie – dit sluit nie die betaling vir 'n instansie soos 'n atreeoord in nie. As die kliënt agterkom dat die rekening foutief is, moet hy/sy dadelik na die naaste Sassa-kantoor gaan, met 'n afskrif van sy bankstaat, om seker te maak dat die inligting korrek is. Eers as die inligting rakende die besonderhede bevestig is, sal 'n dubbele aftrekking die volgende maand plaasvind.

Die nuwe aansoekers vir Sassa-toelae moet deur dieselfde proses gaan. Die nuwe aansoekers moet ook kennis neem dat die ontvangst van Sassa-toelae onderworpe is aan die bevestiging van 'n korrekte bankrekeningnommer. Wanneer die inligting nie ooreenstem nie, sal geen aftrekkings plaasvind nie, totdat die korrekte inligting opgedateer word.

Sassa verstaan dat die maatreëls ongerieflik kan wees, maar dit is noodsaaklike maatreëls wat getref is om te verseker dat alle toelae in die regte rekening betaal word en dat die toelae nie in 'n onbekende persoon se rekening betaal word nie. Sassa versoek dat die gemeenskapsgeoriënteerde organisasies dié boodskap aan alle Sassa-ontvangers sal versprei.

Do you qualify for an indigent subsidy?

The Langeberg Municipality, in its ongoing effort to aid poverty alleviation in the municipal area, currently supports a total of 6 807 households who are deemed as indigent. These residential consumers are regarded as indigent households that qualify for an indigent subsidy, because they have a monthly household income of less than R3 500. Residential properties valued up to R80 000 are also exempted from paying rates.

Section 27 of the South African Constitution states: "Everyone has the right to have access to social security, including if they are unable to support themselves and their dependents, appropriate social assistance. The state must take reasonable legislative and other measures within its available resources to achieve the progressive realisation of each of these rights." And the indigent subsidy is one way in which the Langeberg Municipality adheres to this key legal provision.

Beneficiaries of the subsidy receive their first 6 kl of water, their first 50 kW hours of electricity and a subsidy equal to the charges for waste collection and sewerage per month free.

The indigent grant will be withdrawn from any person who:

- Runs a spaza shop illegally from their premises receiving a subsidy
- Allows illegal electricity connections to their premises, despite receiving an indigent grant
- Sub-leases the premises receiving an indigent grant, which means the applicant is not personally occupying the premises

When applying for an indigent subsidy, the following information is important:

Documentation needed

- Copy of IDs and birth certificates of everyone staying on the property
- Proof of income of everyone staying on the property, ie payslips, bank statements, or an affidavit stating unemployment, or being self-employed
- Latest municipal account

Qualification criteria

- The indigent subsidy applies only to households on residential properties
- Only one property must be owned

Beneficiaries of subsidies receive some services free of charge.

- Only the account holder may apply
- The registered owner must occupy the residential property full-time
- Joint household income must not exceed R3 500,00 per month

Misrepresentation

Any person who has received any benefit or relief in terms of this policy and has misrepresented themselves to qualify for such benefit or relief will be deemed to have committed an offence, and remedial measures will be taken in a manner as determined by the council from time to time. The Municipal Manager will reverse all benefits and relief received, and will raise any fee as determined by council from time to time, as set out in the Tariff Policy. The Municipal Manager will report any misrepresentation in terms of this policy to the South African Police Services.

How and when to apply for the subsidy

An application for registration as indigent is valid only for a maximum period of three municipal financial years, from the date of approval. During the last financial year, the public at large is informed in the local newspaper that the indigent period will lapse on 30 June of that year, and dates will be issued on when and where assistance will be provided with new applications.

For more information on the indigent subsidy and how to apply, please contact the Credit Control officials of your specific town.
