WARD COUNCILLORS

A ward councillor represents a specific ward on the municipal council and is elected through the "first past the post system" in which the candidate that receives the most votes wins. Ward councillors are the chairperson of their ward committees and must give special attention to their wards.

MAYORAL COMMITTEE

The Executive Mayor may appoint a Mayoral Committee (MAYCO) that will assist in making decisions, proposals and plans that have to be approved by council. The mayoral committee may not consist of more than 10 people or more than 20% of the sitting councillors.

PROPORTIONAL REPRESENTATIVE COUNCILLORS

Proportional Representative councillors represents a political party on the municipal council and are elected through the system of "proportional representation" where the party nominates its candidates on the party list. The number of votes a party receives determines the number of candidates a political party will have.
